Rick Papetti has been on trial this week, so he apologizes for the late response. Attached are his second and third reports. They are really nothing more than updates on activities for which we engaged him.

He has not, as of yet responded regarding color copies of photos. The only copy I have is the .pdf file I attempted to send previously. That clearly didn't work, as the file was too big for your servers. So, I will attempt to break down the .pdf file into single sheet .pdf's for each page of photos and send them individually. It should be possible, though I've never successfully done it before. David, if you have any tips....

Jocelyn:

Since they were taken with a film camera, all I can do is send you a cd with pdf's of the color photos. Rick no longer has them. Let me know if this is acceptable.
